GETS AWAY
TO LEAD

SANDY HOOK, July 27.—At 3:35, the Shamrock had won her position and was several hundred yards ahead of the Resolute. The wind was just strong enough to keep the yachts' sails filled.

SANDY HOOK, N. J., July 27.—Shamrock IV today led Resolute across the starting line in the "final" international yacht race to settle the destiny of the America's cup.

The official starting time was the one for both boats at 2:17:00 because both had failed to cross within the two-minute handicap limit.

Having beaten Captain Adams, of Resolute, for position, for the first time in the series, Captain Burton crossed the line on the starboard tack.

A surprising feature of the first five minutes of sailing was the way Shamrock held herself on the edge of the wind. She pointed as well as Resolute.

The first time in their fight for the America's cup, she increased her gain as she moved inland and it seemed as if she was getting a better wind aloft than the American. She was about 50 yards to windward of the defender.

Although the official starting time of 2:17:00, Shamrock actually crossed forty seconds ahead of Resolute. Shamrock finished the race at 2:17:05 and Resolute at 2:21:35.

Crosses of the two sloops—each with its own victory—were hoisted on the yachts early today, prepared to recall their race, which was postponed Saturday because of a southeasterly wind and fogged off yesterday when the yachts failed to finish a drifting match within the six-hour time limit.

One of all the uncertainties that surrounded this year's contest for the America's cup, which has been a long strong probability factor, or her in 1920—Sir Thomas Lipton, a principal in the sailing serial since 1891, will be a principal again in the new installment.

Whether his role will be that of a defender or defender probably will be settled today, but a principal he will be, for he has made it plain that if he fails this time to beat the cup he will make his fifth attempt in 1920, with a new Shamrock.

And, of course, if he does this time, he will have his life's ambition and the great Viceroy Yacht Club is promptly prepared for possession of the prize.

Today, there is little doubt that Sir Thomas will be as quick to build a defender as he was a challenger. At last, this is the opinion of the Irish sailor's friends.

CHANCE RESULTS
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 27.—Chance results announced today follow:Lans, county, N. Y., containing 6,500,000, increase of 18,821, or 0.27 percent.
St. Paul, Minn., 12,000, increase of 1,000, or 8.33 percent.Lad Meets 20 French Chess Champs

Not in years has the world witnessed a more remarkable case of abnormal child development than Stanislas Rzechewsky, born of Polish-Jewish parents and considered the foremost chess player in the world. Recently this eight-year-old player met the twenty best chess players of France. He played them all at the same time, moving rapidly from one board to the next, and lost only three of the twenty games.

Quakes Becoming
Daily Occurrence
For Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, CAL., July 27.—A sharp earthquake shook at 12:02 a. m. today rattled windows in downtown buildings and awakened prisoners in the county jail, who immediately set up a howl to be released. Reports from various parts of the city, however, show that no damage was done.

CHILE TOWN ALSO HAS QUAKE
SANTIAGO, CHILE, July 27.—This city was rocked by a strong earthquake at 12:30 o'clock this morning, but little damage has been reported.

According to information reaching the telegraph offices here the disturbance was felt throughout the central zone of the country from Serena to Concepcion. The duration of the shock is estimated here at from four to six seconds.

Advisers from Argentina say an earthquake occurred at Mendoza last night lasting nearly two minutes.

Other estimates of the duration of the shock here vary, some reaching twenty-five seconds. An investigation revealed small damage to churches and plaster walls of some buildings.

Typhoon Sweeps Luzon
MANILA, July 27.—Thousands were rendered homeless by a typhoon which, accompanied by torrential rains, swept the island of Luzon during the past ten days or two weeks, causing tremendous damage. A dike of the Tula river, Central Luzon, was broken, flooding thousands of acres of rice and sugar lands and carrying off hundreds of small houses. Loss of life was reported small.Brothers Meet Same Fate
CINCINNATI, O., July 27.—Bernard and Joseph Busch, brothers, who lived in Covington, Ky., and were employed as switchmen by the Louisville and Nashville Railroad, were killed today.

Without each other's knowledge they had been made members of the same switching crew. They met on top of a car and spoke about the coincidence of working together. The train gave a sudden lurch, threw the brothers off their balance, and they fell beneath the wheels. They died at a hospital within a short time of each other.

To Be Released For Farm Work
COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—Rural high schools will immediately enter upon plans whereby high school boys may be released from their studies in order to work on farms. This was announced today after a conference between superintendents of many rural high schools and Verne Ribick, state superintendent of instruction.Both Parties Face Hard
Job In Floating Funds To Promote The Campaign(BY DAVID LAWRENCE)
(Copyright by The Times Pub. Co.)
CHICAGO, ILL., July 27.—Campaign finances of both the Republican and the Democratic parties are in none too good condition. Each side is handicapped by a peculiar set of circumstances entirely apart from the supposed restraints which the senate investigating committee was expected to apply this year to excessive spending.Republicans Embarrassed
The Republicans are embarrassed because in a moment of disillusion they committed themselves to one thousand dollars as the limit of the contributions, something that not only prominent Republicans but even Democrats say is wholly impracticable for a short campaign.

The Democrats are affected by no such limits and can make any sums they please, but William Marsh, Democratic national treasurer, who was here today, declared the Democrats would reserve the right to refuse to accept contributions from sources not deemed sufficiently distinguished. The Democrats, however, are in bad shape because the San Francisco convention took at least $500,000 for travel and hotel expenses from the individual delegates and also delayed the organization of the Democratic campaign committee so that while the Republicans have been at work for several weeks, the Democrats haven't even begun. And every day counts in a canvass for funds before election day. Collecting money for a deficit after the election result is once known is an almost impossible task.

Republicans Depend on Big Donations
The theory behind the Republican approach to the question of finance is entirely different from that being adopted by the Democrats. The Republicans are depending upon large subscriptions up to one thousand dollars, and they must raise at least five million dollars. It is much harder to get five thousand persons to contribute one thousand dollars apiece than it is to get fifty thousand persons to give one hundred dollars each for the first time.

The Democrats are depending upon the collection of thousands of individual contributions and soliciting, while the second might be collected through a mail organization, if there were time to build one. It isn't that five thousand dollars each, but all contributions must be made public and the art of giving money to campaigns is not highly developed except in a small circle.

Knights Under Honor System

CLEVELAND, O., July 27.—Three thousand uniformed members of the Knights of Pythias today were placed on a honor system at Camp Mansfield, the home of the uniformed rank during their national encampment here this week. The camp, named after Brigadier General Thomas Mansfield, the oldest uniformed knight in Ohio, was formally dedicated late yesterday.

The men are allowed to go and come as they choose. No guards will stop them or ask questions. They have been told however that they must be present at drills.

Today's program opened with an assembly of the Ohio brigade on the camp grounds this morning. Recreation was to be the order of the day with a prize drill preceding an outing this afternoon and evening in an amusement park.

Folks Facing
Milk Famine
KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 27.—Partitions of fear of the largest milk distributing companies in Kansas City broke today to find an advertisement in the morning newspapers announcing that the companies would supply no more milk under the present milk grading ordinance.

The announcement of the distributing companies declared a "milk famine" existed and asserted the milk trading ordinance was "unworkable," and would place milk upon the list of prohibitive luxuries.

No time limit for the embargo was set in the announcement. The four companies supply approximately 12,000 customers.

SOUGHT BY THE POLICE

CHICAGO, July 27.—Police today were investigating the report of C. C. Finley, a Pullman porter that a man answering E. Leroy's description who came from Detroit to Chicago recently, aroused the porter's suspicion by remarks about police being in search of him.

The police sent out wires to western railroad centers following the porter's statement that the man, accompanied by a woman, said he was going to Los Angeles. The porter said the man expressed concern about the inspectors on the train, that he could not sleep, that the police were after him and that he was restless. The striking likeness of the description given by the porter to the man sought by the police for the trunk murder mystery and the traveler's nervousness, caused the Chicago police to give orders to have west-bound trains watched.

DETROIT, Mich., July 27.—A statement to the police by Mrs. Leo Trumbull, wife of a patrolman, that Mrs. Englewood Leroy, victim of Detroit's trunk murder mystery, had confided in her that she was about to become a mother, injected a theory into the case today.

Police today disclosed their attention between a hunt for Leroy, husband of the slain woman and a second trunk believed to contain the dead organs of the body and which is known to have been sent from the Harper avenue apartment house where the Leroy's lived. It was Trumbull and Mrs. Trumbull who identified the clothing through clothing found in the trunk.

Thief Cuts Off
Tresses While
She Sleeps
CANTON, O., July 27.—Miss Millicent Kelly, 1350 North Mill street, Massillon, was wearing her hair bobbed today, but not because she wanted to.

Some one entered her room while she was sleeping last night and cut off her long blonde tresses just below the ears. The hair thief left a trail of locks on the roof of the porch where he climbed to gain entrance to the house and in the yard where police lost the trail.

OHIO BAKERS IN SESSION
COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—Approximately 250 bakers from all parts of the state are here today attending the semi-annual convention of the Ohio Association of the Baking Industry.

The standard weight of bread will be discussed, although the bakers might begin work before night on his speech to be delivered Saturday to a visiting delegation from Mansfield, Ohio.

Passenger Cars Derailed
HARRISBURG—One woman slightly injured when six passenger cars of the state are here today attending the semi-annual convention of the Ohio Association of the Baking Industry.

The standard weight of bread will be discussed, although the bakers might begin work before night on his speech to be delivered Saturday to a visiting delegation from Mansfield, Ohio.

Elaborate Ceremonies Held At
Northampton, Massachusetts,
Daugherty Represents Harding

NORTHAMPTON, July 27.—Governor Calvin Coolidge was formally notified today of his nomination as the Republican candidate for vice president in exercises which began with a meeting of the notification committee and an informal luncheon for the committee members at the Coolidge home at noon and concluded with ceremonies of notification at 3 p. m. on the Allen Field, Smith College.

In his speech of acceptance Governor Coolidge interpreted the issues for the campaign broadly as defined in the party platform and in Senator Harding's recent speech accepting the presidential nomination.

The little college city was decorated with the national colors and pictures of the governor were displayed everywhere. All business was suspended during the afternoon and the city was crowded with visitors from the adjoining "hill town" section of Massachusetts. Special trains brought delegations from Boston and neighboring states.

Among early arrivals was Harry M. Daugherty, of Ohio, Senator Harding's convention manager and his personal representative at the exercises. Announcement was made that National Chairman Will S. Hays would be unable to attend.

Broad Interpretation Is Placed
On The Republican Platform;
Insists On "Law And Order"

NORTHAMPTON, MASS., July 27.—Rescue from the reactions of war was described as the transcendent need of the nation in the address which Governor Coolidge delivered here today in accepting formally the Republican nomination for vice president.

The chief task that lies before us, he said, "is to repossess the people of their government and their property." Governor Coolidge found another source of gravest public concern to be "the reactionary tendency to substitute private will for the public will." He said there had been a disposition on the part of some individuals and of groups to inquire whether they liked the law, and if not, to disregard it and prevent its execution by the method of direct action.

Must Observe Laws
"The observance of the law," he said, "is the greatest solvent of public ills." He deplored attempts to create class distinctions.

The scene of the notification was Allen Field, the recreation ground of Smith College, a natural amphitheatre. A platform large enough to accommodate only the speakers and a few distinguished guests, was erected at one end of the field and the great assembly sloped before it and the great assemblage stood throughout the exercises.

Governor Coolidge heard from Governor Edwin F. Morrow, of Kentucky, the formal announcement of his nomination "by the spontaneous wish" of the party. The west called to the east, Governor Morrow said, "North and south heard the call and the nation made answer."

Discussing economic relations, Governor Coolidge declared, "the extravagant standards of government, expenditure, and of recent years must be eliminated and a revision of taxation be accompanied by a reduction of private extravagance. He urged a different public attitude toward industry, a larger comprehension of the interdependence of capital, management and labor, and better facilities for the prompt and reasonable adjustment of industrial disputes. The need of the farmer he said, is an enlarged power of organization whereby the original producer may profit to a larger degree by the high prices paid for his produce by the ultimate consumer and at the same time decrease the cost of food.

Governor Morrow Scores
Democratic Administration
For Blundering, Stubbornness

NORTHAMPTON, MASS., July 27.—"This nomination is tendered you as the spontaneous wish of your party," said Governor Edwin F. Morrow, of Kentucky, principal speaker at the ceremonies attending the notification here today of Governor Calvin Coolidge, of his nomination as candidate of the Republican party for vice president.

The west called to the east, Governor Morrow said, "North and south heard the call and the nation made answer." Governor Morrow attacked the Democratic national administration for what he termed its blundering, blundering and stubbornness and called the League of Nations an attempt to bind the United States to the bloody fangs of Europe.

"It is fitting," Mr. Morrow said, that in Massachusetts, "at this fountain of American inspiration, we solemnly determine that the heritage which made us free, independent and prosperous, shall not be forfeited for a mass of unknown perils."

Called In Time Of Need
"You are called to serve your country in a time of your country's need," Governor Morrow continued, "At home grave economic, industrial, social and governmental problems have

Physician Explains Why He Prescribes Nuxated Iron for Run-Down, Anaemic People

Says It Quickly Increases the Strength and Energy of Men and Brings Roses to the Cheeks of Nervous, Run-down Women

Ask the first hundred healthy people you meet to whom they owe their strength and energy and you will find many of them saying "Nuxated Iron".

Dr. James Francis Sullivan, formerly Physician of Bellevue Hospital, New York, and the Westchester County Hospital, says: "Thousands of nervous, run-down, anaemic people suffer from iron deficiency but do not know what to take. There is nothing like organic iron. Nuxated Iron quickly reaches the blood and thereby goes to the source of the trouble, increasing strength and energy."

Unlike the cheap iron pills, Nuxated Iron does not irritate the stomach, but is readily assimilated and you can quickly recognize its action by a renewed feeling of buoyant health.

No matter what other iron remedies you have used without success, if you are not strong or well you owe it to yourself to make the following test: "See how long you can work or how far you can walk without becoming tired. Then take two five grain tablets of Nuxated Iron three times per day after meals for two weeks. Then test your strength again and see how much you have gained. To be absolutely sure of getting real organic iron and not some form of the metallic variety always ask for the Nuxated Iron brand."

Over Four Million People Annually Are Taking Nuxated Iron

TWENTY-FOUR YEARS AGO

T. C. Beatty, Esq., was a candidate for the Republican nomination for member of board of education. The Scioto Gun Club held their annual club shoot at New Boston. Capt. W. L. B. Jack returned from Winchester, where he went to see Congressman Fulton on business. Skowdiks were held on East Second street, in front of the residence of Alex M. Glickner and J. H. Lange. A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Arthur of East Third street.

F. B. Plerson, personal representative of Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican national committee, was the chief speaker Monday night, at a banquet in the RMA parlors of Republican business men. It was attended by about 150 men.

Other speakers were George Matthews, Scioto county's representative in the state legislature, and Ed T. Reed, who acted as chairman.

The meeting was arranged for the purpose of discussing financial affairs, and Mr. Plerson was assured that Scioto county Republicans would do their part. The enthusiastic gathering of men was presented with standing ovations.

Plerson, in his address, expressed the determination of the party to "put Senator Harding in the White House March Fourth." This statement was greeted with cheers.

Mr. Plerson is holding similar meetings throughout the country and they are designed to take care of the financial end of Mr. Harding's extensive campaign.

Sumatra Protects Tigers

Tigers are protected in Sumatra, the reason being that one of the important industries of that country is the cultivation of an African palm. This palm was introduced several years ago, and the wild hogs so enjoyed its easily-obtained fruits and so thrived on them that they increased and multiplied rapidly until they became a perfect pest. Now, wild hogs are the favorite diet of Sumatran tigers, therefore the protection. But it looks like a dangerous experiment.

Had No Intention Of Stealing Car; Dismissed

Ray Taylor and Ernest Jakes, charged with operating an auto with out the consent of the owner, after pleading not guilty in municipal court Monday afternoon, were assessed the costs of prosecution by Judge Small, and then dismissed.

These men, charged with taking the auto of Howard Taylor without his consent, admitted taking it, but stated that they intended going to Ninth and Weller, where they Maxwell touching car was stalled, and towed their car to the Kelly Bros' garage. Baxter stated that he did not believe the boys intended stealing the auto.

On the evidence, the court stated, he believed that the circumstances were not such as to warrant the prosecution of the charges, which is a felony, and the youths were dismissed upon payment of the costs.

Sues For Divorce

In common pleas court Tuesday Carrie Plymate of 127 Summit street, filed a suit for divorce and alimony from her husband, Floyd Plymate. They were married February 13, 1914, and have no children. The plaintiff in her petition alleges that her husband has been guilty of extreme cruelty and that on July 20 last at 1 a. m. her husband secured a revolver and threatened to blow out her brains. She further avers that he has repeatedly cursed and abused her and that she can no longer live with him.

Mrs. Plymate asks for alimony and a restraining order to prevent her husband from coming around her home and threatening her life and from disposing of any of their household goods and $3000 in the First National bank. The restraining order was granted.

Petition Presented

City Solicitor Amelia T. Skelton Monday afternoon presented to the county commissioners a petition to annex Sciotoville to Portsmouth. The petition was formally accepted and a hearing on it was fixed for October 5 at 10 a. m. by the commissioners. ## THE VILLAGE STORE

Meat Market Is Open

WE HAVE WAITED SINCE APRIL FOR THIS EQUIPMENT TO ARRIVE. WE COULD HAVE INSTALLED LONG AGO A SECOND HAND PLANT OR A CHEAPER NEW PLANT OF SOME QUESTIONABLE MAKE.

BUT IN HARMONY WITH THE IDEALS OF THE VILLAGE STORE NOTHING SHORT OF THE BEST WOULD DO AND WE PREFERRED TO WAIT.

THE VILLAGE STORE BUYS FOR ITS OWN USE, EQUIPMENT OF KNOWN QUALITY—IT OFFERS FOR SALE TO ITS CUSTOMERS ONLY PRODUCTS THAT ARE RECOGNIZED AND KNOWN TO BE THE BEST OBTAINABLE.

A COMPLETE McCRAY REFRIGERATOR OF AMPLE SIZE AND A McCRAY COUNTER SHOW CASE, BOTH OF THE MOST MODERN AND SCIENTIFIC CONSTRUCTION GUARANTEES A PERFECT HOME FOR THE BEST PRODUCTS OF OUR COUNTY'S FARMS.

ALL MEAT PRODUCTS ARE PROTECTED FROM FLIES, HEAT, DUST AND GERMS, SECURE FROM CONTAMINATION OF EVERY KIND AT ALL TIMES.

ALL EGGS ARE CANDLED AND GRADED JUST AS SOON AS RECEIVED, AND PLACED IN A TEMPERATURE BUT A FEW DEGREES ABOVE FREEZING, AND KEPT THERE UNTIL THE MINUTE THEY ARE SOLD.

THE FINEST COUNTRY AND LUCASVILLE CREAMERY BUTTER ARE TUCKED AWAY IN A SANITARY COMPARTMENT ALL THEIR OWN ABSOLUTELY SAFE FROM THE ODOR OF ANY OTHER PRODUCTS.

MELONS, LEMONS, ORANGES AND OTHER FRUITS ARE KEPT COLD AND FRESH IN THE COUNTER CASE.

WE HAVE LONG FELT THAT THE FARMER AND THE ULTIMATE CONSUMER OF HIS PRODUCTS WERE MUTUALLY ENTITLED TO A SERVICE THAT WOULD POSITIVELY AND ADEQUATELY PROTECT THEM AND INSURE A SANITARY, SAFE AND FRESH DELIVERY.

WE BELIEVE WE HAVE SOLVED THE PROBLEM. WE BELIEVE THAT THE FARMER WHO PRODUCES GOOD THINGS AND HAS A JUST PRIDE IN THEM WILL BE GLAD TO ENTRUST THEM TO OUR CARE, AND THAT THE CONSUMER WILL APPRECIATE THE SERVICE WHICH WE ARE PREPARED TO GIVE.

YOU KNOW LUCASVILLE IS ONLY A SMALL VILLAGE. WE ARE ALL NEIGHBORS OUT HERE. EVERY ONE KNOWS EVERYONE ELSE AND HIS BUSINESS TOO. THE WHOLE TOWN KNOWS IN TEN MINUTES, WHERE AND AT WHAT PRICE WE BUY EVERY BEEF. THEY KNOW WHETHER WE BUTCHERED AN OLD COW OR A FINE STEER. THEY KNOW EVERY WOMAN THAT BRINGS US BUTTER AND THE PRICE WE PAID HER FOR IT.

AND WHILE WE HAVE AN EXCEEDINGLY GOOD AND PLEASANT BUSINESS WITH PORTSMOUTH PEOPLE WE DEPEND PRIMARILY UPON THE PEOPLE OF LUCASVILLE FOR OUR BUSINESS. WE POSE AS A QUALITY STORE, AND WE COULDN'T FOOL OUR NEIGHBORS HERE IF WE WISHED. THEIR KNOWLEDGE OF OUR PROFESSIONS AND OUR DEEDS ARE YOUR SUREST GUARANTEE.

WHEN YOU BUY BEEF FROM MOST STORES YOU MAY THINK AND HOPE THAT IT IS GOOD BUT YOU HAVE NO MEANS OF KNOWING WHAT KIND OF AN ANIMAL IT WAS OR WHERE IT CAME FROM. WHETHER WE WISHED TO OR NOT, WE ARE COMPELLED TO HAVE GOOD MEATS, FOR WE DEPEND UPON OUR NEIGHBORS TO BUY IT AND THEY WILL KNOW.

SO YOU ARE ALWAYS SAFE IN ORDERING ANY KIND OF FARM PRODUCTS FROM THE VILLAGE STORE, THE STORE THAT, NOW, WITHOUT ANY DOUBT, IS THE BEST EQUIPPED FROM EVERY STANDPOINT, AND THE COUNTY'S MOST RAPIDLY GROWING DISTRIBUTOR OF FOODS.

AND NOW THE SCIOTO TRAIL IS ABOUT TO BE OPENED AGAIN TO TRAFFIC. AT THIS WRITING, SATURDAY, JULY 24TH, THERE IS A DETOUR OF LESS THAN 300 YARDS AND THIS WILL BE OPEN IN A FEW DAYS.

HUNTINGTON, July 27.—Only a handful of people were in the party which yesterday afternoon followed the remains of William H. Bennett, Jr., to the Bennett home place near Fayetteville. Bennett, the son of a prominent Fayette county jurist, was lynched Sunday morning by a mob of 100 masked men who took him from the Fayetteville jail. He was being held there pending his transfer to Moundsville where he was to have spent the remainder of his life in state prison. He had confessed to the murder of his young wife, Della Taylor Bennett, daughter of J. Alfred Taylor, well known author and newspaperman. His victim was a prospective mother.

Advised from Fayetteville last night were to the effect that everything was quiet. The identity of the members of the lynch mob remains a mystery. The Bennett funeral services were held at the grave. Prayer was offered by the Rev. Mr. Carson, of the Methodist Episcopal church.

Will Visit In The East

They are now cruising along the Pacific coast. Morgan writes that he is delighted with the beautiful islands.

Slander Suit Dismissed

Mrs. Nettie Phelps, of High street, charged with slander by Mrs. J. E. Stevens of High street, was dismissed. Immediately after Judge Small had heard the testimony of the complaining witness in municipal court Monday afternoon. The court held that the element of slander was not present in the record.

Two Men Fined

Men giving the names of Albert Gramma and Armour Taylor, arrested over the week end for intoxication, were fined $5 and cost each by Judge Small Monday afternoon.

Heat—the tube's enemy and the tube that overcomes it

THE one aim of Firestone in building tubes has been to defeat this tube destroyer by increasing heat resistance. Firestone's concentrated effort through the antimony process—a method by which heat-resisting power of the rubber is increased and deterioration reduced—has resulted in the Firestone High-Test Tube—a tube that parallels the quality and service of the Firestone Oversize Cord Tire.

Firestone builds this High-Test Tube bigger in sectional size, which avoids unnecessary stretch and strain when the tube is inflated. Heat-generating tension is therefore reduced.

Firestone's laminated structure—ply upon ply of thin rubber sheets, laid so the grain runs crosswise, produces a stouter tube wall.

Firestone introduced the cured-in valve pad, giving strength at the point of greatest strain.

With greater resistance to heat, greater strength and toughness, the Firestone High-Test Tube takes the same high rank as the Firestone Cord Tire.

Think what a small investment this Firestone High-Test Tube is—to protect your big investment in tires. Tell your dealer you want Firestone High-Test Tubes.

MORE MONEY FOR SCHOOLS

The schools are asking for more money to carry on their work. Do they need it? In street parlance, we say "I'll say they do." This expression is not a very elegant one, but it is a fact.

It is impossible and unnecessary to recite in detail how and where every dollar of the money is to be spent. A few illustrations will suffice.

The high school now needs about ten teachers to complete the corps. These vacancies were caused for the most part by our low salary schedule. A few days ago the superintendent wrote to Paul Turnbull, a graduate of Marietta College, a splendid type of young man who accepted a contract for $100 per month but was caught in the draft and the contract had to be cancelled. In as much as our high school is a day school, it is a fact that $100 per month is not enough to employ for the school cleaner and correspondingly poorer pay.

An illustration of a great department. The United States Bureau of Education at Washington recently issued a bulletin on the care of public school buildings. The report says that the St. Louis schools are over 100 years old, there being one building for every five school rooms. The report further states that the proper proportion is why the superintendent must be budget director of the schools as well as superintendent of instruction, etc. Now the Portsmouth schools are average age 100 years for every 13 school rooms. But we get along don't we? Do we need more money for the schools? Again "I'll say we do." THE SUPERINTENDENT. (To be continued.)

How Much Power at the Wheels?

MOTOR power is not car power. Much motor power is lost in its delivery to the rear wheels.

But this loss can be reduced to a minimum by correct lubrication of the "power line"—the transmission gears, universal joints, differential and rear axle bearings.

And correct lubrication of these parts means the use of a lubricant which will prevent wear without offering resistance to power.

Polarine Transmission Lubricants are supplied in three grades, one of which will correctly lubricate the transmission units in your car.

Polarine Transmission Lubricant "A" A heavy fluid oil—the correct lubricant for transmission and differential gears and bearings, where case construction is tight.

Polarine Transmission Lubricant "B" A semi-fluid grease for transmission and differential lubrication where construction is such that leakage would occur with a fluid oil.

Polarine Transmission Lubricant "RR" A semi-solid grease for transmission and differential lubrication where gears and bearings are badly worn and case is not tight.

The Pure Spread for daily bread

Footpads were again active in the North End Monday night.

While on his way home, Harold Schneider of Eighteenth street says he was held up at Fourteenth and Chillicothe streets by two men. At the point of guns, he says, they rifled his pockets and secured $2. He reported the hold-up to the police and furnished them with a description of the two men.

Steve Arnold, who resides at 1321 Flindley street, told the police late last night that while he was on his way home two men attacked him on Flindley street and one of them struck him on the head. He says that when he showed fight the men disappeared before they could rifle his pockets.

The police believe the footpads were the same who held up Schneider in the North End and hope soon to have them in the toils.

Greedy Pig.

Ruth was the possessor of a savings bank made the shape of a little pig. The bank was full of nickels and dimes, and one day Ruth's aunt, needing some change, hurriedly shook out all the dimes, thinking she would take them to replace before Ruth had discovered her loss. Ruth was not long, however, in finding out that her aunt's pig was rather light in weight, and, holding it up to the light while she exclaimed: "Oh, Aunt Maude! the little pig eaten up all my dimes!"

A REGRETTABLE CHANGE

A member of the Tennessee legislature has written Senator Harding, asking him how he would advise him to vote on the woman's suffrage bill. The answer is an urgent urge to vote for the measure.

Following so quickly upon his promise to the female suffragists, who called upon the Senator about five days ago and practically demanded that he advise and direct the Republican members of the Tennessee legislature to vote for; that should any member ask his opinion he would be glad to advise him as they would like, the inquiry looks like it was arranged for.

That, however, is of no grave importance. The feature we regret is the departure of the Senator from a previously declared position, one in which he highly commended himself to the sober intelligence of the country as a presidential candidate, who would not run before every breeze, nor attempt to float with every current. Within two or three days after his nomination he was called upon by a similar delegation, to the one that issued orders at Marion and directed to do the same thing. This first time he refused on the broad ground that he would not interfere with the processes of any state legislation, nor attempt to control it by virtue of his position.

Yes, that was high and safe ground. Leaving it is to travel in dangerous paths. The matter of whether the legislation is good or bad, is not in issue, the vital point and the only part is efficient and what, if we were a legislator we would take to offensive, interference in the special province and duty of an independent governmental organization.

It may be smart politics to catch the seemingly rising tide and hurry along on it, but we do not think it is even that, and as a citizen we are against executive authority, present or prospect, invading jurisdictions that are not within the scope of its powers and ought not to be within its province so much as by assumption. That is and always has been our position. This is a government of checks and balances. It has continued to be the best there is on the earth and grown to be the most powerful. That was because, notwithstanding mistakes and straying at times it has kept in the main to the wholesome and saving principles of a free and popular government, as laid down by the fathers. Our judiciary has been untouched by pressure from other branches and though there has been too much encroachment of the executive authority there has been no grave evil worked thereby, only the cultivation in the minds of the people that the executive should be the whole government.

It is unfortunate that Senator Harding did not continue steadily to maintain his right attitude upon the threat that comes from that direction.

CONGRESS AND THE CENSUS

A congressional re-apportionment follows every census. That is on the basis of population then as certain congress proceeds to fix its membership on the basis of population.

This might not seem to be any particular problem, but this year it is going to prove perplexing. Either one or two things must come to pass, the membership of the lower house must be increased, or else ten states will find their numerical states therein diminished, as maintaining the present ratio of one congressman to each 211,000 will retain every state representation at least what it is now, while keeping the exact number of congressmen will cause Missouri, Iowa and Indiana to lose two members each and Illinois, Kentucky, Maine, Nebraska, Vermont and Virginia one each.

The matter of the total of membership is more important than appears at first glance, as it appears to be plenty large at present, but become important, vitally so, when it is reflected that the presidential vote of each state is as its congressional representation totals and means a state's prestige nationally waxes or wanes upon its showing as to increase or decrease of inhabitants.

Naturally the states mentioned will object to a decreased representation and they will protest against raising the apportionment to a larger basis. Their protest, however, should not prevail. Congressional membership is ample and might, rather, be smaller than larger as a few men run the business of legislation. The majority of representatives do no more than that and they are often conveniently absent when their vote, if placed right, would be better for the interests of the country.

The Nashville Tennessean views both Cox and Harding as failures as presidential candidates because neither has, so far, had a cigar named after him.

As we read it the Bolsheviks are heartily in favor of an armistice that ends for an unconditional surrender on the part of the Poles. They are perfectly willing to talk peace (and will have the sort of peace they like) if Poland will disarm completely. Just at this juncture too Poland calls for the moral support of America. She has it and will retain it, provided she makes no abrupt surrender to the enemies of the peace and order of the world.

The DIARY OF AN ENGAGED GIRL

LINDSEY WITNESSES A WEDDING

The day of days for Laura is drawing to a close. It is nearly midnight, and Laura and her Morgan are now one. That's a load off my mind, I can assure you. The crash will come in the morning, when Mother Edmund receives the news by wire, and she will doubt I shall come in for my full share of reproaches from all hands, but do I worry? Not me. I have helped a friend to achieve the thing she wants most in the world, and I am fairly glowing with pride and happiness in my share of the work.

Such a flattery, joyous bride as Laura needs. If I like to be a hundred I shall never forget the expression in her eyes, when after the minister had pronounced her and her Morgan's marriage, she claimed that man and wife, she lifted her face to Morgan's for his kiss. And that kiss! It held all the love of all ages, all the desire of all lovers in its soft echo.

And then Morgan half carried his new bride from the room. Everything went off as scheduled. At ten o'clock I met the girls at the Grand Central, armed with my sketch book and the smiling appreciation of my chief still in my ears, for every

WHO'S WHO In The Days News

GEORGE WHITE
The selection of former Congressman George White, of Marietta, Ohio, as chairman of the Democratic National Committee, is hailed by partisans of Governor Cox as a place of clever political strategy.

Had Cox ordered the retention of Homer S. Cummings as national chairman, he would by that alone have alienated many anti-Wilson Democrats for Cummings has been very close to the administration for some years. Had Cox on the job for Ed Moore, his pre-convention manager, he would have won thereby the active enmity of the Anti-Saloon League. By choosing White, a prominent dry, Cox has planted a very large element of the moderate, mainly, the prohibition element.

The choice of White means that Cox himself will lay down the broad lines of policy for the conduct of the campaign. This does not mean that White is without convictions of his own; it means that, having worked in close association with Cox in Ohio state politics for many years, he will now be quite likely to defer to the wishes of his chief.

Mr. White, who is 48, was born and raised in Marietta, N. Y. He graduated from Princeton University while President Wilson was a professor. He went to the Klondike for two years. Later he entered the oil business and made a fortune in oil drilling.

He was assistant to Mr. Moore in Governor Cox's campaign. He represented the fifteenth Ohio congressional district in Congress three terms. Previously he had served in the Ohio legislature.

Stanley is one of a large family. Besides numerous sisters and brothers, there are aunts and uncles and many cousins. The only young people, however, are those in his immediate neighborhood. At Thanksgiving dinner Stanley gazed solemnly around the table for a while and then announced solemnly: "My mother and the cat seem to be the only people in this whole family that have any children."

Regret.
There is such a thing as noble regret, and there is one which is ignominious, for there may be virtue and vice even in a memory. Beware of "chewing the cud" of past wrong doing.—Darnton.

They Succeeded It.
When the band played "How Dry I Am" at the league ball park at Portland, Ore., three Japanese fans stood in their box with hats raised, thinking "the national anthem."

BILLY WHISKERS

By FRANCES TREGO MONTGOMERY

"A thousand lightnings yet again!" yelled Hans as Billy howled him over. The two pulls came down with a thud and a splash, and could make all over the road and down the gulches at the side. Hans' dog, which had been sniffing at the roadside to see if he could find the trail of a rabbit, now jumped out and came at Billy. With one jerk of his strong little neck the runaway goat picked the dog up on his horns and tossed him clear over his head, where he landed plump on top of fat Hans and knocked the breath out of him for a second time. Just as Hans was getting up, then Billy, feeling fine from this nice bit of exercise kicked up his heels and galloped on.

When Billy's mother came up even with him she was panting so hard that she could not speak, but she did not stop. She kept right on running, and he followed, curious to see what she meant to do. As soon as they were out of sight of the men, she turned from the road into the woods, and by a small stream, a little hollow which was all overgrown with bushes. Into this she raced, and Billy, now seeing what she was up to, scampered lightly along behind, thinking it too great fun.

The hollow grew deeper and steeper as they went on, and at last she turned and scrambled up the last, pebbly bank, where she plunged into a dry little cave. Here she lay down upon the ground to get her breath, while Billy climbed in beside her and listened. Soon he could hear the heavy pat, pat of the feet of Farmer Klausen and his boys on the road, which was now high above them.

"They'll never find us here," he said.

"Don't panic!" he said or they will hear us," bawled his mother. "My! I'm getting too fat to run any more, but if you were bound to go out in the world, I was bound to come with you. You're not old enough to be trusted alone. But you are right about one thing; unless they catch us, we're never going back."

English Conquest of Ireland.
The conquest of Ireland by the English was a gradual process. The first step was taken by Henry II, who is said to have obtained a bull from Pope Adrian IV, authorizing him to take possession of the country. The Tudors steadily pursued the policy of taking land from the Irish chiefs and giving it to English settlers. The final act of the union was passed and proclaimed on January 1, 1501.

New-York - Day - By - Day

By O. G. MENTHE

NEW YORK, 27—An esteemed morning Park flow newspaper came very nearly being the victim of a hoax last week that would have made it the laughing stock of the town. The deception was discovered after the story was in type and ready to burst forth on the front page.

Several weeks ago, after the final edition had gone to press, a queer looking visitor, with a magisterial gait and thin, curled mustache drifted into the editorial rooms. He announced himself as a miracle man, and these reporters and copy-readers gathered around him to look him along.

He claimed to be able to make material things more by thought forces. He began with a deck of cards which was purchased by an office boy down stairs. By throwing himself into a frenzy and getting into a wild, certain leap in the deck would creep out and leap to the floor and then dance about wildly.

The "doct" seemed to be a real deal, and he would take any card presented and going through the wild convulsions would soon have it hopping about like a Mexican bean. He feigned complete exhaustion after his stunts. The entire editorial staff was amazed but skeptical. They wanted further proof.

The next day the performance was repeated, with cards and coins expertly selected, under a glaring spotlight and some of the college professors on hand to see what they could see. No trickery could be found in the apparent condition in which the miracle man was left after giving the performance increased the faith.

On the day before the story of New York's Amazing Miracle Man was to be printed, it was decided to hold another performance. The cards skipped and danced and the coins jumped and floated through the air. While one card was making a bag from the table to the floor, an office boy grabbed it.

The hoax was discovered. The card was attached to a thin bit of wax to which was attached a tiny long loop of wire. The other end of the loop was fastened to a piece of wax on the miracle man's finger. That was why it had to make motions wildly over the objects to start them leaping about. It is one of the oldest tricks of magicians, it was learned, and yet a great metropolitan journal nearly fell for it.

An express elevated train made a brief stop between stations the other evening at the home-going rush hour. On either side of the street were rows of office buildings. A pretty stenographer chanced to look down into one of the offices. Four men were seated around a table upon which was a bottle of Scotch. Four small glasses had been filled. They were about to drink when one looked up and saw the girl in the train. He lifted his glass to her and so did the others in mock solemnity and drank to her health while she blushed delightfully and smiled. Then the train gave a lurch and moved on.

It developed at a fashionable lunch place on Long Island the other day that three sons of multi-millionaire society men had tattooed arms and breasts. The boys were in the navy and when they touched the Azores a tattoo specialist visited the boat and they decided to be decorated. All refused, however, to pose for an enterprising news photographer who was present.

Broadway is thrilled by the news that there is a saloon somewhere in the Morning Glories where the landlord has all the comforts of the club life. There is a brass rail, three bartenders, five per cent beer, cocktails, highballs, brandy and champagne. According to the reports, it is being carefully guarded and only those who may be trusted are admitted. The earnings amount for admittance is $25 with all the feverish anxiety that goes with securing first night seats to the Follies.

A Cold-Hearted Affair
She—it will be cheaper to get married at home than in church; but if we are married in church we will get a great many more presents.

He—Then the only question to decide is: Do we need the cash more than the presents?

SWIMMING SUITS AND BEACH CAPES FOR VACATION TIME

NEWARK, July 27.—Harry Wills, negro heavyweight, knocked out Fred Fulton in the third round of scheduled 12 round fight here last night.

Jack Britton, welterweight champion, defeated Marcel Thomas, French welterweight in a ten round bout.

Frank Moran, Pittsburgh heavyweight, given newspaper decision over "Wild" Hurt Hogan, New York, in ten round bout.

Edlie Fitzsimmons, New York lightweight, outpointed Johnny Dundee in a ten round bout.

COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—The biggest money distribution card of the entire week was offered today in the second program of the mid-summer Grand Circuit races here.

Two trotting features were on the program. They were the S. and S. $5,000 stake for 2:11 trotters and the Nell House stake of $3,000 for 2:05 trotters. A 2:10 pace and the 2:20 trot for two-year olds completed the program.

The S. and S. stake will have much interest in it as Alta Donovan, Hoga Palm, Princess Etawah, Norman Diller and Hollywood Naoml.

In the Nell House, Don De Lope, Baron Legantic, Mignola and Charlie Fox are among the starters.

CINCINNATI, July 27.—The Reds are now off on their longest jaunt of the season. After playing at Cleveland Monday they went to Brooklyn, where they open a four-game series on Tuesday. Following Brooklyn they will go to the Polo Grounds for four games with the Giants, then to Philadelphia for four contests and to Boston for six games including two postponed from the last trip. The team then makes a long jump to Chicago for four games with the Cubs and will not be at home again until August 1 when they return for another bout with the Eastern club. Twenty-two games in all are scheduled for this extended journey. If the Reds can hold their own while in the enemy's country they will look like regents, but if they fall down on the road it will take a big come-back to set them straight again.

COLUMBUS, O., July 27.—Bob Martin, A. E. F. heavyweight champion knocked out Sergeant Ray Smith of New York in the fifth round of a scheduled 15-pound bout here last night before a large crowd.

A prominent New York broker bet American League. If he wins his bet $5,000 last Saturday that Cleveland is a 5 to 1 shot that the Indians will beat out the Yankees in the win the American League flag.

Well, the birds open a four game series in Brooklyn today and if they are going to repeat this year they will have to get busy right away. Jimmy King is slated to pitch the opener and after a week's rest he ought to be in splendid shape.

This interesting series of photographs shows Babe Ruth, the "home run king," in the act of knocking out one of his base-running clerks. The photograph on the left shows him as he steps to the plate and eyes the pitcher; then, in successive stages he is shown with the bat at his shoulder, the beginning of his tremendous swing, and, at the extreme right, the end of his swing after he has connected with the ball and just before he starts for first base.

The leaders of the industrial league proved to the complete satisfaction of a couple thousand highly demonstrative fans at the Seventeenth Street yards last evening, that they were not only possessed of inherent strength but were blessed with reserve power when they otherwise what looked to be an insurmountable lead secured by the N. & W. lads and won out quite handsomely by the score of 11 to 8. The game, long drawn out and as full of excitement and action as a disturbed horse's nest, was not the best played game of the season by a hellorlot, but it was the most doubtful of the year until Second Baseman Cooper of the Solvays cracked one of Walter's fast ones and sent it crashing far over the dome of Centerfield Woods, and on which Mr. Cooper made the entire circuit, driving in Shorty Shultz and Arthur Berlin Schweinsberg. The hit came in the last inning and the Solvays needed but one run to win, but according to a new ruling the drive must be counted for a home run. Mr. Cooper, who is always alive from the neck up was thoroughly conversant with the new ruling and had the foresight to trot around the base paths, touching every mark and finally denting the rubber. His feat won the game and will enrich him by five dollars, which Mr. W. W. Blum, the real estate man will give him on his next appearance at bat. Mr. Cooper will kindly remember to make return of the game on his income blank next year.

The N. & W. boys took the field minus the services, encouragement and ability of Manager Timmons, who was detained on a business engagement. In fact they had but eight players when the bell tapped and had to draft into action a Mr. Clark, dressed in civilian garb, and who struck out as easily as though he were garbed in one of Spaulding's finest uniforms. Before the N. & W. boys had been re-fired, however, Jimmy Kegger put his appearance and Mr. Clark did not have to display himself further.

The N. & W. boys assessed four runs in the opening inning and the Solvays boys who had anticipated a rare treat had to looke it right down and drive like Geese of libidinal fame. What they had to do they proceeded to do showing why they are not in front. They tied the count finally and then in the most approved style proceeded to win the game as partially depicted above. The Tailenders, however, were just as game to their adversaries and had it not been for the terrific clobbering ability of Stony Shultz and Mister Potts, would have deeply humiliated the Tailenders. Shultz got only four hits, and likewise Mister Potts. The latter, however, outslugged Shultz, for he got a couple of three baggers, while Shultz managed but one extra base hit, and that was left.

In the next frame the Solvays up the count after two men were Cooper fanned for a starter and J. was tossed out by Walters. Shoen singled to left. Smith loaded Stroller, Potts then made his hit, a single through second. Baker tapped rubber. Blake called out on strikes.

The Solvays were not long in lining out in the seventh and while were at it they made it a good plenty. Bangham rolled to the and was tagged on the line. Stroller up his terrific bombardment a vicious liner to center. He second on Schwarzenbers single to center. Then Cooper got hold of one of his finest and sent it far over the dome. Mr. Weeks in center. It was a of mammoth proportions and over the socks. Mr. Cooper kept around the sacks and easily in home run. The score:

N. & W.	A. B. R. H. E.
Goode, ss	1 1 0 1
Smith, 2b	5 1 0 0

VICTORI

The Hallenders had the satisfaction of driving "Lefty" Townsend off the rail and made quite merry with the offerings of Howard Ellsworth Huggerton who succeeded him. It is true the support accorded the civil engineer was quite unenthusiastic but he never gave up and led the satisfaction of timber in a splendid winner.

"Doc" showed but two bids in the four inches he affiliated but the Hallenders scored their runs in one of the frames at that.

Wells was hit hard all the way through and particularly severely in the last three inches when the Solvays made nine of their sixteen hits while Wells made one half of the hits and scored five of the eleven runs. These three two hits didn't have anything to do with the victory.

Vandert and Hubert were the hitters for the Hallenders scoring five of the eight hits. Mr. Hicks nearly caused the eight occupants of the Solvay bench to have palpitation of the heart when he bore a toothful triple to center in the first inning. "Lefty" Townsend never looked the same after noticing that wallop. It was a real hit and was held to a triple only because of the wonderful ground covering ability of Freddie Blake. Ordinarily it would have been a home run if it rested on the N. & W. right of way and Mr. Hicks may file charges

The Hallenders' disorganized, is deciding order before the war starts, who are approved.

A REGRETTABLE CHANGE

A member of the Tennessee legislature has written Senator Harding, asking him how he would advise him to vote on the woman's suffrage bill. The answer is an urgent urge to vote for the measure.

Following so quickly upon his promise to the female suffragists, who called upon the Senator about five days ago and practically demanded that he advise and direct the Republican members of the Tennessee legislature to vote for; that should any member ask his opinion he would be glad to advise him as they would like, the inquiry looks like it was arranged for.

That, however, is of no grave importance. The feature we regret is the departure of the Senator from a previously declared position, one in which he highly commended himself to the sober intelligence of the country as a presidential candidate, who would not run before every breeze, nor attempt to float with every current. Within two or three days after his nomination he was called upon by a similar delegation to the one that issued orders at Marion and directed to do the same thing. This first time he refused on the broad ground that he would not interfere with the processes of any state legislation, nor attempt to control it by virtue of his position.

Yes, that was high and safe ground. Leaving it is to travel in dangerous paths. The matter of whether the legislation is good or bad, is not in issue, the vital point and the only part is obvious and what, if we were a legislator we would take to offensive, interfering in the special province and duty of an independent governmental organization.

It may be smart politics to catch the seemingly rising tide and hurry along on it, but we do not think it is even that, and as a citizen we are against executive authority, present or prospect, invading jurisdictions that are not within the scope of its powers and ought not to be within its province so much as by assumption. That is and always has been our position. This is a government of checks and balances. It has continued to be the best there is on the earth and grown to be the most powerful. That was because, notwithstanding mistakes and straying at times it has kept in the main to the wholesome and saving principles of a free and popular government, as laid down by the fathers. Our judiciary has been untouched by pressure from other branches and though there has been all too much encroachment of the executive authority there has been no grave evil worked thereby, only the cultivation in the minds of the people that the executive should be the whole government.

It is unfortunate that Senator Harding did not continue steadily to maintain his right attitude upon the threat that comes from that direction.

CONGRESS AND THE CENSUS

A congressional reapportionment follows every census. That is on the basis of population then as certain congress proceeds to fix its membership on the basis of population.

This might not seem to be any particular problem, but this year it is going to prove perplexing. Either one or two things must come to pass, the membership of the lower house must be increased, or else ten states will find their numerical states therein diminished, as maintaining the present ratio of one congressman to each 211,000 will retain every state representation at least that it is now, while keeping the exact number of congressmen will cause Missouri, Iowa and Indiana to lose two members each and Illinois, Kentucky, Maine, Nebraska, Vermont and Virginia one each.

The matter of the total of membership is more important than appears at first glance, as it appears to be plenty large at present, but become important, vitally so, when it is reflected that the presidential vote of each state is as its congressional representation totals and means a state's prestige nationally waxes or wanes upon its showing as to increase or decrease of inhabitants.

Naturally the states mentioned will object to a decreased representation and they will protest against raising the apportionment to a larger basis. Their protest, however, should not prevail. Congressional membership is ample and might rather be smaller than larger as a few men run the business of legislation. The majority of representatives do no more than that and they are often conveniently absent when their vote, if placed right, would be better for the interests of the country.

The Nashville Tennessean views both Cox and Harding as failures as presidential candidates because neither has, so far, had a cigar named after him.

As we read it the Bolsheviks are heartily in favor of an armistice that calls for an unconditional surrender on the part of the Poles. They are perfectly willing to talk peace (and will have the sort of peace they like) if Poland will disarm completely. Just at this juncture too Poland calls for the moral support of America. She has it and will retain it, provided she makes no object surrender to the enemies of the peace and order of the world.

LINDSEY WITNESSES A WEDDING

The day of days for Laura is drawing to a close. It is nearly midnight, and Laura and her Morgan are now alone. That's a bad off my mind. I can assure you. The crash will come in the morning, when Mother Edmunds receives the news by wire, and no doubt I shall come in for my full share of reproaches from all hands, but do I worry? Not me. I have helped a friend to achieve the thing she wants most in the world, and I am fairly glowing with pride and happiness in my share of the work.

Such a fluttery, joyous bride! Laura made. If I live to be a hundred I shall never forget the expression in her eyes, nor the radiance of her red lips, when, after the minister had pronounced them man and wife, she lifted her face to Morgan's for his kiss. And that kiss! It held all the love of all years! All the desire of all lovers in its soft glow.

And then Morgan half carried her new bride from the room. Everything went off as scheduled. At ten o'clock I met the pair at the Grand Central, armed with my sketch book, and the smiling approval of my chief still in my ears, for every man loves a romance, and this was one after his own heart. My sketches are to be out tomorrow night.

Laura looked lovely in a lavender, thin dress and hat to match, and her eyes were so bright and so full of dreams and maybe a few unshed tears, so near to the eyes of every bride, that they only helped to place them in particularly masterly and bluish look. Morgan was tall and proud, and about a bit nervous, though he showed it only in his incessant pacing up and down at every station we stopped at. Arrived at New Haven, we alighted, and went to a restaurant and had a jolly lunch together. After this, we found the particular minister we were in search of, and presented him with our letter of introduction and our credentials. This done, we sat down and had a chat with the light Reverend and Jonathan Mervin, and found him to be most sympathetic with love and love. This was a pleasant discovery.

After a little delay we filed into the chapel and the deed of duty was done. It's really quite terrifying, after all, to discover what a very short time it takes to make two people man and wife. Very much longer it takes to make these same two people, two again. I confess that the ceremony had a sobering effect on me, and I realized why so many girls hesitate right on the steps of the altar, so to speak, and all that.

Laura, poor little kid, was quite white and shaky as she marched up to her place beside Morgan to be made his wife. I really couldn't help smiling a bit.

After that, it was comparatively smooth sailing that is to say, before you could say Jack Robinson Laura and Morgan were man and wife.

It was sweetly mortifying after it was all over, to see how these two kids forgot me, or almost did. However, I understood, and forgave them. They seemed dazed at first, and then the realization that they actually belonged to each other swept over them, and they simply flew into each other's arms wildly. That was some clutch, and kiss.

Of course, with my usual tact, I discovered that I simply had to make the next train back to town, and get my work done, etc., anything to leave those two darling husband and wife, and so after a fond farewell I beat it, got back to my office, sat down and had a good cry, which relieved my overwrought nerves, considerably. Then I turned to and sketched like all time for two hours. It was, take it all in all, some day.

Class by Themselves

Stanley is one of a large family. Besides numerous sisters and brothers, there are aunts and uncles galore and many cousins. The only young people, however, are those in his immediate neighborhood. At Thanksgiving dinner Stanley passed solemnly around the table for a while and then announced oracularly: "My mother and the cat seem to be the only people in this whole family that have any children."

BILLY WHISKER

BY FRANCES TREGG MONTGOMERY

"A thousand lightnings yet again!" Billy howled. The over, the two pills came down with a thud and a splash, and went milk can all over the road and down the gulley at the side. Hans Zieg's dog, which had been sniffing at the roadside to see if he could find the trail of a rabbit, now jumped out and came at Billy. With one jerk of his strong little neck the runaway goat picked the dog up on his horns and tossed him clear over his head, where he landed plump on top of fat Hans and knocked the breath out of him for a second time. Just as Hans was getting up, then Billy feeling fine from this new fit of exercise kicked up his heels and galloped on.

When Billy's mother came up even with him she was panting so hard that she could not speak, but she did not stop. She kept right on running, and he followed, curious to see what she meant to do. As soon as they were out of sight of the men, she turned from the road into the woods, and by a roundabout way led him to a little hollow which was all overgrown with bushes. Into this she crept, and Billy, now aware that she was up to something, followed along behind, thinking, "It's too great fun." The hollow grew deeper and shadier as they went on, and at last she turned and scrambled up the dim, rocky bank, where she plunged into a dry little cave. Here she lay down upon the ground to get her breath, while Billy climbed in beside her and listened. Soon he could hear the heavy pant of the feet of Farmer Klausen and his boys on the road, which was now high above them. "They'll never find us here," he said.

"Don't 'baw' so loud or they will hear us," panted his mother. "My! I'm getting too fat to run any more, but if you were bound to go out in the world, I was bound to come with you. You're not old enough to be trusted alone. But you are right about one thing; unless they catch me, we're never going back."

English Conquest of Ireland

The conquest of Ireland by the English was a gradual process. The first step was taken by Henry II, who is said to have obtained a bull from Pope Adrian IV, authorizing him to take possession of the country. The English steadily pursued the policy of giving land to the Irish chiefs and taking it to English settlers. The final act of the union was passed and proclaimed on January 1, 1801.

New Name For Tom

One by one the soldiers had plucked their way through their share of the reading lesson until it came to little Frankie's turn. He got on pretty well until he stumbled on the word "cellar."

The teacher kindly helped him with the pronunciation of the word, and asked:

"And do you know the meaning of the word?"

"Frankie shook his curly head.

"It means something that is handed down from father to son—in other words, a relic."

"Oh!" exclaimed Frankie, while a pleased smile crossed his face. "That's the funniest name I ever heard for a pair of trousers!"

New-York - Day - By - Day

BY G. S. MONTGOMERY

NEW YORK, 27.—An esteemed morning Park Row newspaper came very nearly being the victim of a hoax last week that would have made it the laughing stock of the town. The deception was discovered after the story was in type and ready to burst forth on the front page.

Several weeks ago, after the final edition had gone to press, a queer looking visitor with a magellan's goatee and thick curled mustache, trifled into the editorial rooms. He announced himself as a miracle man, and these reporters and copy-readers gathered around him to look him along.

He claimed to be able to make material things move by thought forces. He began with a deck of cards which was purchased by an office boy down stairs. By throwing himself into a frenzy and gestulating wildly, certain cards in the deck would creep out and leap to the floor, and then dance about wildly.

The closest scrutiny failed to reveal any apparatus. He would take any coin presented and going through the wild contortions would soon have it hopping about like a Mexican bean. He feigned complete exhaustion after his stunts. The entire editorial staff was amazed but skeptical. They wanted further proof.

The next day the performance was repeated, with cards and coins especially selected, under a glaring spotlight and some of the college professors on hand to see what they could see. No trickery could be found and the apparent condition in which the miracle man was left after giving the performance increased the faith.

On the day before the story of New York's Amazing Miracle Man was to be printed, it was decided to hold another performance. The coins skipped and danced and the cards jumped and leaped through the air. While one card was making a leap from the table to the floor, an office boy grabbed it.

The hoax was discovered. The card was attached to a thin bit of wax to which was attached a tiny long hair which could not be seen three inches away. The other end of the hair was fastened to a piece of wax on the miracle man's finger. That was why he had to make motions which over the objects to start them leaping about. It is one of the oldest tricks of magicians, it was learned, and yet a great metropolitan journal nearly fell for it.

An express elevated train made a brief stop between stations the other evening at the hour-glass rush hour. On either side of the street were rows of office buildings. A pretty stenographer chanced to look down into one of the offices. Four men were seated around a table upon which was a bottle of Scotch. Four small glasses had been filled. They were about to drink them when one looked up and saw the girl in the train. He lifted his glass to her and so did the others in mock solemnity and drank to her health while she blushed delightfully and smiled. Then the train gave a lurch and moved on.

It developed at a fashionable tennis match on Long Island the other day that three sons of multi-millionaire society men had tattooed arms and breasts. The boys were in the navy and when they touched the Anzac a tattoo specialist visited the boat and they decided to be decorated. All refused, however, to pose for an enterprising news photographer who was present.

Broadway is thrilled by the news that there is a saloon somewhere in the Bowery Forties where the initiated have all the comforts of the old days. There is a brass rail, three bartenders, five per cent beer, cocktails, highballs, brandy and champagne. According to the reports, it is being carefully guarded and only those who may be trusted are admitted. The security around for admittance is done with all the feverish anxiety that goes with securing first night seats to the Follies.

"Well, sir, if that isn't wonderful! Beats all I ever saw!"

"Like the sketch, do you?" the flattered artist responded with a pleased blush.

"Sketch? Oh, that! Yes, it's all right. I expect. What I meant was the way you have managed to keep that boy quiet for so long."

A Cold-Hearted Affair

"About what?" asked the other.

"Is it to be a duel to the death, or shall we make it the best three lives out of five?"—Boys' Life.

In Bed

The other day at a musicale two elderly gentlemen were seated near the rear of the house. A nicely built lady began to sing and during the course of the song one of the men remarked: "That is some three song. I wonder who wrote it?"

"I don't," replied the other.

"Er—ah—pardon me, my dear sir, perhaps it is the singer and not the song. By the way, who is that woman with such a awful voice?"

Very quietly and softly the other replied: "My wife."

Negro Uses A Gun In Fight

A killing match was the direct cause of a shooting affray at 7:30 Monday night at Clifford, where the S. & W. has a force of men inspecting their right of way in that section.

The principals were Floyd Carroll, 18, white, and James Brown, 20, colored. They met near one of the camp cars when Carroll playfully put his hands on Brown's shoulder, and the latter, mistaking this for an insult, drew a revolver and fired. Carroll then Carroll quickly drew over to his camp and secured his slingshot and started after Brown. When he met him he fired four shots at his feet, he says to Brown, but one of the bullets lodged in the latter's right foot. Brown then grabbed hold of Carroll and the two men were scrapping when Carroll snatched the trigger of his revolver and Brown was shot in the right side just over the hip. He was taken to Lucasville, where Dr. J. H. Hilling treated the bullet and extracted it without difficulty.

Sheriff E. E. Hickey and Deputy Sheriff Harry Dunham were gone on the scene but failed to find any trace of Carroll, whose home is said to be in Ft. Gay, W. Va. He disappeared in the hills back of Clifford.

Whipping Post Revived; Youth Publicly Switched In Courthouse Yard By Mother

The whipping post was revived in Boston. It was a real whipping too, as Mrs. Edward Johnson, aged 11, colored, was taken into the side yard of the court house. She considered her son as a house and in the presence of Probate Judge Gilliland and other court officers, she publicly switched the juvenile, who was publicly switched by his mother, Mrs. Carrie Avery, of New child.

Tears coursed down the boy's cheeks and the switching did not end until Johnson agreed to be a dutiful son and refrain from getting into any more trouble. Prior to the switching, he was fined $5 and cost and made a ward of the court after he had been found guilty of delinquency.

MORE MONEY FOR SCHOOLS

The schools are asking for more money to carry on their work. They need it. In street parlance, we say "they need it." This request is being made by the school board, which is asking for a 10 percent increase in the tax on real estate. It is impossible and unnecessary to detail in detail how and where every dollar of the money is to be spent. A few illustrations will suffice.

The high school now needs about 100 teachers to complete the course. These teachers are engaged for the most part by our low salary schedule. A few days ago the superintendent wrote to Paul Turnbull, a graduate of Marietta College, a splendid type of young man who accepted a contract just before the world war to teach in our high school and coach athletics for $100 per month, but was caught in the war and the contract had to be cancelled. He is now as good as unemployed. His salary had advanced to $180 per month it was thought that

FOUND UNCONSCIOUS ALONG ROAD

Lawrence Steel, 22, was found unconscious along the road. He was found by a horse. Since then he has been subjected to convulsions. He has been out of the army about a year and a half.

Mrs. Ulrich Mustain, formerly of 1013 Washington street, is a sister of the man. The young man's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Steel, of the city of the Times, succeeded in learning the man's identity. Harry Steel, employed at the Distel Furniture Co., had lived in London, and an effort was made to locate them.

A passerby found the young man given a description of the man, said: "The man was unconscious, lying on the road, and he called Dr. that he thought he was possibly a soldier, who at once realized the young man's condition and had him taken to the hospital, where he remained in a comatose condition until last night. The man's name, which the sister and her husband had also moved there. The Steels are located at 251 South Sixth street, Columbus. According to Harry Steel, the young man was in the army for several years, and the sister at 254 South Sixth street, Columbus.
